Donations & Giving

Success! Bravo, Arisians! We welcomed 101 potential donors today, among whom 81 successfully donated. This is wonderful news for the many patients in need. Thank you all! Don't feel left out if you meant to be among that august number, you have another chance today until 4 PM with Children's Hospital. Contact a Naughty Nurse, stop by the Heinlein Society table near Starbucks in the lobby, or email or text John Hodges, jcfh@alum.mit.edu, 617-943-4399. Thanks!

Volunteers

It rose from the mire of a fetid swamp, the waters tainted with toxic, industrial waste. The gray, amorphous mass oozed towards the city engulfing, absorbing anything – or anyone – it encountered. That's not how we get volunteers for Arisia. You have to go to the Volunteers Office near Registration. Do it, and the satisfaction of helping the con (and free stuff in the Volunteers Office!) is yours. Work 8 hours and you get the special, staff T-shirt; work 12 hours and a membership to Arisia 2012 is yours.

Anime Room

Didn't get to see the one (non-hentai) anime you wanted to catch this weekend? Come to the Anime Room (Stone) and you can catch up with what you missed.

Internet

Arisia attendees staying in the Westin can use their name and room number to access the hotel's WiFi. Fees will not be charged to your bill. If you have more than 2 devices, use 91557 for the access code.

Safety Corner

Working dog is working. Please do not pet the service dogs. Thank you.

Psyche Corporation

Come to the contorting, corset-clad Psyche Corporation; Sunday at 7 PM in Grand Ballroom C. Psyche Corporation specializes in dark, Victorian, fairy tale science fiction. The band itself is named after a dream manufacturer from a dystopian future. As a performance group, Psyche Corporation has incorporated robot exhibition, steel origami cranes, contortion, corsets, flashlights and old radios. A recent song mixed tribal singing with classical piano and percussion based on poliovirus DNA sequences.

Robot Party

Come to the Robot Party and pay tribute to our robot overlords! While this party is primarily for robots, cyborgs and androids, you may bring your humans as well. Dressing them in robot-themed costume is encouraged, but please do not leave them unattended. Your presence is mandatory! Sunday at 8 PM until our batteries run out; rooms 1606/1607 and the datasphere.

Pi-Con Party

Which is the most correct, 22/7 or blueberry? The truth will be revealed tonight at 8 PM in 1634.

Dine on the Town!

There is a Dinner Shuttle running from 6 PM until 11 PM that goes to Faneuil Hall with its variety of restaurants. Last shuttle returns from Faneuil Hall at 11 PM.

Art Happenings

Did you bid in the Art Show? Did others bid on the same work, too? All it takes is 3 bids to put a piece into the Voice Auction so check your bids! The Auction will be at 8 PM tonight down in the Galleria near the Art Show; if you snooze, you lose (the piece)! Sales and artist checkout also starts at 8 PM (6 PM by request).

Artists, Authors and Creators: there is still space in the Author & Artists Alley! For $20, you can have a 5 hour block in the Alley, located between the dealers and art show. Limited time slots available. Contact Lisa at lhertel@gmail.com or 508-574-8685, or find her in the Galleria.
