Welcome to the Boston Seaport. Let's Eat!

You've made it! Those of you new to the area will be forgiven for half expecting a tumbleweed to roll by as you parked in some far off surface lot. At first glance, the Seaport area doesn't seem to offer much to tame your growling stomach, but take heart. There are many tasty provisions to be found in the hotel and just a short walking distance away. All of those really big buildings that you see are about a mile away, and tucked within them are some gastronomical delights. Don't want to go that far? You still have a range of options, from high class dining to taking in a brewery tour or sampling from over 100 whiskeys. So drop your bags in the room, grab your badge at registration, and rest easy that there is plenty out there to tickle your tastebuds.

Arisia is happy to provide this guide to many restaurants and services near the two Arisia hotels (the Westin Waterfront and the Boston Doubletree). While we make every effort to provide accurate information, Arisia cannot guarantee the hours, offerings or quality of any independent establishment. Phone numbers and websites are included with listings where available. If you have specific questions or concerns regarding any of our listings, we suggest you phone ahead.

This year the establishments in this Guide are organized by a general category that they would fall under. Some areas of the city have a greater concentration of places to eat than others, and we encourage you to explore beyond what this guide may list. This is merely a starting point for your culinary adventures. In years to come we will gladly expand our range of listings based on congoer feedback.

Getting Around Boston

Automobile

Frankly, we recommend walking, taking the subway or bus to get to food. Parking is often expensive and open meters can be hard to find, not to mention contending with traffic on the way to your destination.

Public Transit (Subway and Bus)

If you take the subway while you're here, you'll be on the Silver Line which connects to the airport and South Station. Subway fare is $2 ($1.70 with Charlie Card) per trip. Daily ($9) and weekly ($15) passes are also available. Children under 11 ride on public transportation for free when accompanied by a paying adult.

Charlie cards can be obtained from MBTA sales offices in South Station, North Station, Downtown Crossing, Back Bay, and Harvard stations.

Relevant stops on the Silver Line:

World Trade Center Closest stop to Westin

Logan Airport

Terminal A

Terminal B stop 1, Terminal B stop 2

Terminal C

Terminal E

South Station Red Line, Commuter Rail, Amtrak, Connect to Bus Terminal

There are a number of bus lines that stop in the seaport area within walking distance to the Westin. They are: 11, 171, 4, 448, 449, 459, 7 Bus fare is $1.50 per trip ($1.25 with Charlie Card).

The T runs approximately 5:30a–12:30a. Complete bus, subway, and commuter rail maps, schedules, and fare information are available online at www.mbta.com.

Taxi

If you need a taxi, we recommend going to the Concierge Desk in the Hotel Lobby. They will call a reputable and reliable cab company for you.

Based on: www.cityofboston.gov/police/hackney/taxi_rates.asp

Official taxi fares are:

- Meter Rates: $2.60 for the first 1/7th mile or less, $0.40 for each additional 1/7th of a mile, Flat Rate if applicable: $3.20 per mile.
- Waiting Time: $28.00 per hour.
- Additional tunnel and airport fees from Logan Airport: $8 ($2.75 airport fee, plus $5.25 tunnel toll)
